UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
 FOR THE NORTHERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA
 SAN FRANCISCO DIVISION

FEDERAL TRADE COMMISSION,

Plaintiff,

v.

MICROSOFT CORPORATION and ACTIVISION BLIZZARD, INC.,

Defendants.

Case No. 3:23-cv-02880-JSC

DEFENDANT MICROSOFT CORPORATION'S STATEMENT IN SUPPORT OF PLAINTIFF FEDERAL TRADE COMMISSION'S ADMINISTRATIVE MOTION TO CONSIDER WHETHER ANOTHER
 PARTY'S MATERIAL SHOULD BE SEALED [ECF NO. 308]

Dept.: Courtroom 8—19th Floor
 Judge: Honorable Jacqueline S. Corley

Pursuant to Civil Local Rule 79-5(f)(3), Defendant Microsoft Corporation (“Microsoft”) respectfully requests that the Court maintain under seal the confidential information identified below, which was provisionally filed under seal pursuant to Plaintiff Federal Trade Commission’s (“FTC” or “Plaintiff”) Administrative Motion to Consider Whether Another Party’s Material Should Be Sealed (“Administrative Motion”) (ECF No. 308) in connection with the FTC’s Final Proposed Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law (hereafter, “Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law” or FoF-CoL”) (ECF No. 309).

Below, Microsoft has identified highly confidential material found in Plaintiff’s Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, along with the specific bases for sealing required under Local Rule 79-5. The proposed sealing reflects Microsoft’s good-faith efforts to narrowly seek sealing of only that information which is competitively sensitive and contained in internal documents, the public disclosure of which would cause injury to Microsoft that cannot be avoided through any more restrictive alternative means:

Document	Portion to Be Filed Under Seal	Basis for Sealing Request ¹
FoF-CoL	Page 3, paragraph xvii, portions of lines 8-10	This portion contains non-public and highly sensitive information including, but not limited to, internal decision-making processes, investment decisions, and business partnerships, which could be used to injure Microsoft if made publicly available.
FoF-CoL	Page 3, paragraph xviii, portions of lines 12-13	This portion contains non-public and highly sensitive information including, but not limited to, internal decision-making processes, investment decisions, and strategic evaluation of forward looking opportunities, which could be used to injure Microsoft if made publicly available.
FoF-CoL	Page 3, paragraph xix, portions of lines 15-18	This portion contains non-public and highly sensitive information including, but not limited to, internal decision-making processes, investment decisions, and strategic evaluation of forward looking opportunities, which could be used to injure Microsoft if made

ARGUMENT

I. Sealing Portions of Plaintiff's Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law Is Warranted Under Ninth Circuit Precedent as They Contain Microsoft's Confidential Business Information

The above-mentioned excerpts of Plaintiff's Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law contain competitively sensitive business information and warrant sealing. In the Ninth Circuit, "[p]arties seeking to seal judicial records relating to motions that are 'more than tangentially related to the underlying cause of action,' bear the burden of overcoming the presumption with 'compelling reasons supported by specific factual findings that outweigh the general history of access and the public policies favoring disclosure.'" Lenovo (United States) Inc. v. IPCom GmbH & Co., KG, 2022 WL 2313948, at *1 (N.D.

Cal. Jun. 28, 2022); see also Kamakana v. City & County of Honolulu, 447 F.3d 1172, 1179 (9th Cir. 2006) (“[T]he court must ‘conscientiously [] balance the competing interests’ of the public and the party who seeks to keep certain judicial records secret.”). Courts in this Circuit regularly find that sealing is warranted where the records or information that are sought to be sealed could be used “as sources of business information that might harm a litigant’s competitive standing.” Nixon v. Warner Commc’ns, Inc., 435 U.S. 589, 598 (1978); see also In re Elec. Arts, Inc., 298 F. App’x 568, 569 (9th Cir. 2008) (same); Velasco v. Chrysler Grp. LLC, 2017 WL 445241, at *2 (C.D. Cal. Jan. 30, 2017) (stating that “district courts in this Circuit have sealed records containing ‘information about proprietary business operations, a company’s business mode or agreements with clients,’ [and] ‘internal policies and strategies’”) (internal citations omitted).

“The Ninth Circuit has explained that ‘in general, compelling reasons sufficient to outweigh the public’s interest in disclosure and justify sealing court records exist when such court files might have become a vehicle for improper purposes, such as the use of records to . . . release trade secrets.’” Velasco, 2017 WL 445241, at *2 (quoting Elec. Arts, 298 F. App’x at 569); see also Elec. Arts, 298 F. App’x at 569 (“A ‘trade secret may consist of any formula, pattern, device or compilation of information which is used in one’s business, and which gives him an opportunity to obtain an advantage over competitors who do not know or use it.’”) (citation omitted). A court has “broad latitude” to grant protective orders to prevent disclosure of “many types of information, including, but not limited to, trade secrets or other confidential research, development, or commercial information.” Phillips ex rel. Estates of Byrd v. Gen. Motors Corp., 307 F.3d 1206, 1211 (9th Cir. 2002).

In determining whether a document should be filed under seal, courts consider, among other things, the measures taken to guard the information’s secrecy and the value of the information to the business or its competitors. E.g., Phillips ex rel. Estates of Byrd v. Gen. Motors Corp., 307 F.3d 1206, 1212 (9th Cir. 2002). Here, Microsoft seeks to maintain under seal only the portions of Plaintiff’s Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law that reference and reflect, among other things, confidential, proprietary information relating to Microsoft’s internal decision-making processes, investment decisions, strategic evaluation of forward-looking opportunities, market share analyses, assessment of the competitive landscape, business partnerships, terms of existing confidential agreements, revenue

1 figures and projections, and internal discussions of business strategy. The disclosure of this information
2 could be used to injure Microsoft if made publicly available.

3 II. Sealing of Plaintiff's Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law Is Necessary to Protect
4 Microsoft's Confidential and Proprietary Business Information

5 Microsoft supports maintaining under seal narrowly tailored excerpts of the above-mentioned
6 excerpts of Plaintiff's Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, which contain Microsoft's non-public
7 and highly sensitive information from documents obtained during the course of the FTC's investigation
8 and during litigation discovery. Examples of such confidential information include, but are not limited
9 to, Microsoft's internal decision-making processes, investment decisions, strategic evaluation of 10 forward-looking opportunities, market share analyses, assessment of the competitive landscape, business
11 partnerships, terms of existing confidential agreements, revenue figures and projections, and internal
12 presentations discussing business strategy. Disclosure of this information would provide Microsoft's
13 competitors with private data about Microsoft's performance and business strategy, which could harm
14 Microsoft's competitive standing. See Cont'l Auto. Sys. v. Avanci, LLC, 2019 WL 6612012, at *4 (N.D.
15 Cal. Dec. 5, 2019). Thus, the unsealing of this highly confidential and sensitive information would cause
16 injury to Microsoft that cannot be avoided through less restrictive alternatives.

17 Finally, Microsoft provided the FTC with confidential business information from the above-
18 mentioned excerpts of Plaintiff's Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law pursuant to the statutory and
19 regulatory guarantees of confidentiality contained in the Hart-Scott-Rodino Act or the FTC Act. See 15
20 U.S.C. §§ 18a(h), 46(f), 57b-2(b), 57b-2(c); 6 C.F.R. § 4.10(d)-(g). In similar cases, the FTC has 21 acknowledged the need to maintain the confidentiality of a party's confidential business information that
22 has been provided to the FTC via a regulatory request. See, e.g., FTC v. Lockheed Martin Corp., 2022
23 WL 1446650, at *2 (D.D.C. Jan. 25, 2022) ("According to the FTC, sealing the complaint is appropriate
24 . . . because the filing includes confidential information submitted . . . pursuant to 'statutory and
25 regulatory guarantees of confidentiality.' . . . The requested sealing covers only confidential information
26 and is, according to the FTC, required by regulation.").

1 III. Conclusion

2 As stated above, compelling reasons justify Microsoft's request for sealing the confidential
 3 business information contained in the above-mentioned excerpts of Plaintiff's Findings of Fact and
 4 Conclusions of Law. Microsoft therefore respectfully requests that this Court grant Plaintiff's
 5 Administrative Motion. In accordance with Civil Local Rule 7-11, Microsoft has also filed a Proposed
 6 Order herewith.
